Hello and welcome to AltStar,

We're all so happy, and a little dizzy, from the growth of our AltStar Magazine project. Celebrating all the cool creative performers, artists, and designers in our shared alternative scene has always been our vision and having people all over the world sending words of encouragement and love for the things we get to bring them with these pages is a constant source of joy.

We've gotten to work with some really cool events all over America, stuffing hundreds of goodie bags with AltStar issues and it's always cool when fans get to see their friends and favorite people in print.

We've got reports from a few of those events in this issue, along with interviews and profiles with some of the folks we most admire, not to mention some great new stuff to check out in our bits section. Please don't hesitate to hit us up on our contact page (or on Twitter) if you have some cool news or awesome things you think maybe we should take a look at for future issues as well. We really do love being able to be supportive of our shared Alt scene.

Joanna Angel's Blackcraft Cult Tee

Have you ever dreamt of spending time with hot Joanna Angel all over your body? Don't be silly, of course you have. Are you the kind of person that likes to dress in a stylish, fashionable, we-love-the-dark-lord-and-we-like-to-show-it kind of way? Then you should definitely have a look at this T-shirt from Blackcraft Cult.

Traditional cut, old-school print of one of the hottest ladies in the industry and a nice pentacle in the background. And it comes in all the colors you'll ever want: black.

A great addition to the already interesting catalogue of Blackcraft, and a must for all of Joanna's many fans.

Sexy Fun Manyvids MV Magazine 19

MV magazine has a unique take on the alternative subculture. They have a very fresh and minimalistic look, featuring interesting interviews and gorgeous photo sets of alternative beauties.

I was really happy to see this number features the ever seductive MollyDoll who's art I've been loving for quite a while now. The magazine has an arousing photo shoot of her and Nikki Eliot and some insightful interviews that tell us more about their work, passions, and kinks. Another interesting feature was Brooke Candy's interview, where she talks about her music, image, sex positivity and her favorite porn. The article also features an amazing photo set, raw, natural and empowering! They also have a cute section called "MV Selfies" where yo find a few selfies and a few facts about your favorite models. This issue also features HimeMarie, Dolly Matel, and Scarlet Raven, all with gorgeous pictures and interviews so captivating you'll actually read them after you savor the eye candy!

Sexy BarelyEvil Magazine: Issue #3

I don't know about you, but I am looking forward to every edition of BarelyEvil magazine, and it seems many share my opinion because they won "Best Alt Magazine" at the AltPorn Awards this year.

So, issue number 3 is out now, and it is full of goodies. You get info about the latest toys, games, interviews with the hottest alternative models, some fashion articles interesting features and artworks, all very beautifully crafted. I loved Amelia G's "Walking in L.A" piece, and it's so captivating and spicy, I'll leave this small quote for you to understand: "And I imagined his hand in between my fishnet-clad legs, pressing inside me, gently at first, then hard."

There is also an interview with Menton3, a very talented artist whose work really speaks to the dark souls and we get to learn a bit about his projects and creative processes. Another captivating feature was Dana Dark's interview, and when I opened up the magazine and saw that perfect pussy spread out, up close and personal...damn. That's all I'll say for now, but trust me, BarelyEvil mag #3 is something you need to have in your collection!

New Frontiers of Kink

Imagine yourself at work, handling awkward interpersonal relations with the routine mask of "normality". All of a sudden, the sextoy hidden in your underwear starts vibrating, stimulating your excitement hidden to anyone but yourself. You know you can't show it, but this only makes it more and more exciting.

Wearing hidden sextoys in public is not new, but technology boosts the thing a step forward. Sextoys like Lush, from Lovense, are controlled over ANY distance by a phone app. Putting yourself in the condition of your partner stimulating you at any time, without even knowing if they will catch you in a bad moment. Your sexuality handed over blindly to your partner. Or, why not, to a stranger... These are interesting times to be kinky!

Check out their brand new 2nd generation Lush, just completing presales, now with improved Bluetooth range and much better control button ergonomics. This model, as well as their sexy Hush plug can even be voice controlled through Amazon's Alexa!

Blush Releases Ultra-cute Vibes

One company whose fresh graphic designs always impress me, from silicone color combo pouring to hip pop-culture informed sex toy creations is Blush. I've been a fan of their boldly colorful Avant line of striped dildos and plugs, as well as their stylish c-rings, but right now I want to talk about their fun kawaii mini-vibes! These are so cute! They would go perfectly with so many of our favorite anime cam performer's collections. I really like the floppy eared bunnies with flying skulls and crossbones, but the candy-cats with coffee and donuts, or the colorful ice-cream treats are adorable options as well. They are seven inches in length and are made with lab certified body safe non-porous ABS plastics. Plus, they are splashproof and have multiple vibration settings. They certainly have updated the old 'neck-massager' design.

Oh, and Blush also offers informative classes on a range of sex-related subjects with esteemed sex educator Ducky DooLittle at their online Blush U educational portal.

Dread The Empire Toy Creations

We've seen the indie artisanal fantasy silicone toy design and marketplace scene really explode lately, with new creative entries establishing themselves at an impressive rate. But one new team by the name of Dread the Empire has caught my eye and constantly offers up truly gorgeous new work. Self described as a Dank Ding Dong Maker on their active Twitter, their signature sculptures are so natural and evoke fantastical sea-creatures, with their aquatic anatomical shapes, like the Reaver (right), as well as the engorged and veiny Thunder (left). Plus, their color mixing and pouring techniques are among the most jaw-droppingly beautiful we've seen. Their Etsy store has a very solid five-star rating and their fans just gush about Dread the Empire products and service. I also like how they take a collaborative community building stance, working with other designers to foster even more diverse, creative, innovative works.

Bazowie 2 review!

Bazowie! is the perfect magazine for horny little nerds like me, who are also into alternative, though it is kind of a given when you're into games, anime and weird movies characters, right?

Anyway, Bazowie!'s second issue is out now and I am overwhelmed by all the good stuff in here. The first thing that got me going "wow" is Logan's amazing review of Cyberpunk 2077, the passion and the amount of info required to write a review like that, damn! I also enjoyed the reviews for Solo: A Star Wars story and Westworld, a personal favorite of mine. There is also a review on Vaughn Belak's Dodging Knives and Throwing Bullets, which you may already know I absolutely love! You can also find a really hot photoshoot from Bar Sinister, Harry Potter themed that will sweep you off your feet. Then delight your eyes with the beautiful art of Crystal Anastasia. There's more nerdy product reports, sex dolls info and interviews with beautiful babes. Just open the pages and step right into nerd nirvana!

Marilyn Manson Double Cross Dildo

As you might know by now because everyone on the internet raves about it, and to me and most die-hard fans is not a surprise at all, Marilyn Manson has launched a very interesting dildo.

Now, I always knew this day would come, and I hope he comes up with more stuff for his kinkster fans, which is..all of us, right? Now, if you thought that the Killstar collection was the closest your privates get to the Antichrist Superstar's face, you're in for a surprise, because his Double Cross Dildo has his fucking face painted on it, so yes, you can sit on that face and ride it like you've always dreamed, all 8 inches of it. And no, the name is inspired by his double cross symbol, it is not a double dildo, but wouldn't it be cool if he'd come up with one of those as well? Careful thou, the paint might fade with multiple uses, so maybe stock up on them

Photos by Amelia G and Forrest Black

AltPorn.Net readers may recognize the tall (sometimes pink) mohawk of MessyHot, who, with model Lum, brought home the Best Rave Shoot trophy from the AltPorn Awards this year. He and his friends from 1 Vibe Events throw a lingerie rave party every year called Lingerieve. The idea is basically a big deal rave with famous DJ's and everyone in their underwear. We've been covering the event since the first one EroticBPM sponsored all the way back in 2009. Now the event is in its twelfth year and sponsored by MyFreeCams, so you know it has to be good.

We contributed giveaways of cartons of copies of the most recent issue of AltStar magazine, with Doll_Parts on the cover. MyFreeCams, as always, had tons of really great giveaways, including a variety of sunglasses perfect to protect dilated pupils and lots of sexy different MFC bra and party sets. Arizona ravers know how to party (I should know!), so you'll see in the photos that some attendees stripped down and changed into MFC lingerie right there at the club.

Amelia G and Forrest Black, who brought home the Best Photographer trophy from the AltPorn Awards, were kind enough to let AltStar publish a selection of the portraits they shot at the event for BlueBlood.net. The models of MessyHot were out in force, plus models from MFC and BlueBlood and hot cuties who model for all three, and just lots and lots of lingerie-clad ravers ready to dance.

Since 2015, Mr. Hankey's Toys has been known for superior quality and sizes that will make even the hungriest of holes happily satisfied. They supply some of the largest dildos around made with the best of the best, hypoallergenic platinum cured silicone. These hefty beauties can stand up on their own. Customers are given options such as a Vac-U-Lock hole add-on for sex machine use and different color choices. Most of these toys are also harness compatible. There is no doubt that they have gained a loyal fan base through providing large, quality, body-safe dildos and butt plugs catered to experienced players.

Hankey's Toys

interview by MissLoLo

How did Mr. Hankey's Toys start?

Mr Hankey got the idea when on vacation in 2014 and after going into a high-end specialty adult shop where he saw lots of unique toys that you don't normally see in your run-of-the-mill porn shops. He realized that these new looking toys were pretty cool but he also realized that they could be better and he knew he could make something better if he could just figure out how to do it. He started experimenting with mold-making in his spare time, pouring very small batches of silicone in his kitchen and learning about the mold making process. He says he spent a lot of time trying to determine what materials to use and how to formulate and work with different silicones. He wasted lot's of money on experiments that went wrong, purchased lots of materials that went to waste and finally started to get the process down. In October 2015 he made his first mold from a clay toy that he named Mr Hankey and he posted that one toy for sale online. People started to buy the toy so he made another one..and another and another. He then teamed up with a great designer and starting improving on his designs, making them more intricate and offering some different sizes. In 2016 he moved into a small, run down 12'x12' office space (which was not meant for manufacturing) but was better than having his kitchen full of materials. He worked in that space after he got off of his day job every day. He then hired a part time employee and stayed in that space for another 6 months or so. By that point he was outgrowing the small room and in 2017 he rented a larger commercial space which is where we are at now. After moving in to his new space, he hired me and I have been here ever since. We have already outgrown the new commercial space and now need something that is roughly twice as large, we will probably be moving again within the next year or so. Mr Hankey originally started the company in order to save up for his son's future college expenses. He figured that if he could make an additional $500/month that in 18 years he would have enough to fully pay for his son's college expenses. He still puts the $500 in his son's college savings account each month but because the company has grown so much since it started, he has decided to make this his career. He says he loves the work and all of the different people he gets to work with, he loves that it's interesting and fun - it's definitely better than sitting in a cubicle all day. We are growing about as fast as a company can grow and are always struggling to keep up with the demand. We still manage to ship out toys within a day or two though, that's one thing that we always want to keep the same - quick shipping. We also still offer the best customer service around, replying to every email, every question and always very quickly - Mr. Hankey does not want that to ever change. Our key is offering awesome, low cost (our items sell at a lower cost per lb. than any of our competitors), ultra high-quality platinum silicone toys that ship quickly and that come with some of the best customer support out there.

Mr. Hankey's Toys is such a creative team, bringing people the most fantastic sex toys to both beginners and pros alike. Can you tell me a little about your latest exciting up-and-coming news?

Alt models out there, they are always welcome to reach out to us, we love working with fresh new talent. Our latest news, the Nick Capra lifecasting is now avail in four sizes. Upcoming releases include the Topher Michels lifecasting in four sizes and the long awaited re-release of the Lampwick. We will have a toy called The Plumber and another lifecasting called The Barber that will also be following the Topher and Lampwick. We don't have exact release dates yet, a lot of that simply revolves around how busy we are and whether or not we can take on the extra orders that always come along with each new release. We'll be sure to keep you updated on everything as they available. One of the best ways for people to learn about our new releases is to subscribe to our newsletter at the bottom of our page. People can also follow us on social media - we often post photos of new releases on social media before announcing them anywhere else.

These toys sure have made a lasting impression. The ever popular Centaur model was nominated for an AltPorn Award in 2017 and the Seahorse won Best Toy this year. Tell me what that was like. What was your experience?

Being relatively new with the company it was exciting to go to the event and receive the award, our designer for that toy really deserves the credit, he's a great person and is extremely skilled at what he does. The award show itself was great, it was really fun. We'll definitely be there next year. I remember most of it...then ended up outside...then remember that they would not let me back in due to the amount of alcohol I consumed - regardless, I got back in and remember bits and pieces from there. If we go to an event, we are going to have fun, that's the main reason - it's like a field trip, we get out of work, get a cool hotel, free drinks or whatever and just have a good time. It was a great night and we are all looking forward to doing it again!

As The Cock-Maker at Hankey's Toys, it is your duty to push the envelope with your intense products. This has been achieved successfully through the time and dedication put in by you and your team. How do you see the market evolving as you grow your brand?

Our base customers are typically hardcore and extremely experienced people. It is hard to find a toy company that caters to those customers. Most toy companies appeal to the masses and are relatively tame with what they do, there is very little out there that is really new and exciting. Most companies just push cheap junk through your typical online or brick and mortar porn shop, they all carry the same garbage. We only sell to high quality specialty shops, we will never sell to your typical porn shop and we will never manufacture out of cheap materials. We have seen more and more mainstream shoppers discovering our products and hopping over this last year. We have tried to offer sizes that also appeal to mainstream shoppers, even our new toys that we offer in four sizes now have a smallest size that almost anyone can handle but we still make sure that our larger sizes are still massive, the sizes that make our base customers happy. We are learning how to appeal to a broader audience without changing what we do or becoming soft, we'll always be a hardcore shop and offer some of the most extreme stuff you can buy anywhere.

RILEY NIXON

interview by Skyler Slash

Performer, model, activist, advocate, exquisite beauty... there are many words that can be used to describe the amazing Riley Nixon and all of them would be accurate while also not doing her justice. She is, in fact, all these things and so much more. With her unique look, exquisite beauty, and voracious sexual performances, she took the adult industry by storm. In a relatively short time she has skyrocketed to the top of the the business both on screen and off. She was nominated in both the Best Feature and Best Punk categories in the recent AltPorn Awards and she just became President of performer advocacy group APAC (Adult Performer Advocacy Committee). We are extremely proud to have the opportunity to interview her and give her a chance to share her thoughts and story with you all.

Thank you for joining us Riley, I guess we should start at the beginning here. How did you get your start in adult modeling and video work?

I began nude modeling in 2015 through the website model mayhem. I had been doing that for almost a year when I was contacted by my first porn agent through the website inquiring about a bush photo shoot. They asked if I had ever considered doing adult films and the rest is history!

So, you have a signature look that you have become known for, rocking a buzzcut as you do. Tell us a bit about how it came about?

I really needed a change in my life and the only thing I felt I could change really quickly and easily was my hair. I had a bob haircut with bangs at the time and thought it would be cool to have an undercut in the back. That lasted about 2 days before I climbed in the bathtub and buzzed it all off. My boyfriend's mom at the time (I was living at his family's house) was not too impressed. I had seen several girls with this haircut and admired them immensely for being brave enough to do it. It felt like something I needed to do. I'm obsessed with the cut, it feels so fucking good. I also love how much it forces people looking at my photos to look at my face.

Outside of your work in front of the camera, you have become known as quite the performer advocate, tell us a little about that work and what drives you in that regard?

I just always want performers to feel happy and comfortable in their work and everyday lives. I want them to have a person or a group they can turn to when they aren't feeling their best. None of us are alone and I don't want anyone to ever feel that way. I'm really excited to be the newly elected President of APAC (adult performer advocacy committee). These next two years I hope to bring even more performers together and just create a space where they can feel safe and inspired.

That is amazing to hear and I definitely look forward to your success in that role. So on the other side of the coin, what inspires you as a performer?

I aspire to show my genuine enjoyment on camera at all times. Knowing that a lot of people are getting their sex education from watching my porn, I want them to see what it looks like when two consenting adults are thoroughly enjoying each other. I hope to spark ideas in viewers' minds that may not have been there before, whether it be new ways of having sex or seeing my unconventional style as beautiful and recognizing that in similar people in their own lives.

You have done a lot of work on the alternative side of the adult industry as well as mainstream projects. What are your thoughts on the differences between working in mainstream versus the alt side?

I tend to prefer the alt side of porn because of how unique it is. I don't feel like I have to conform to the cookie cutter stereotypes that are usually scripted for me. Alt porn also allows me to get a little more freaky than mainstream, I need that sexual outlet. So many times on mainstream sets I'll want to do something weird and they'll just say "uhhh, how about we do this instead". I feel like there's definitely more room for zany creativity in the alt porn world.

So, out of all the shoots and scenes you have done, what are some of your favorites?

One of my favorites would have to be my umpcoming anal threesome with Leigh Raven and Owen Grey. I had been dying to work with both of them and it was just magical! We ended up shooting sex nonstop for over 2 hours...we were having a lot of fun. Its an Evil Angel/John Stagliano movie called Prove Something and it's coming out soon! My other favorite scene is one I did a while back called "The Producers" with Ryan Madison for PornFidelity. It was one of my very first scenes and I couldn't believe how much fiery passion I felt through the whole thing. My intro got nominated for "Best Solo/Tease" at the AVN Awards that year!

Do you have any goals for the future?

I hope to eventually make enough residual income where I can take time off to start having babies. My ultimate goal is to have my own Fleshlight but we'll just have to keep our fingers crossed!

How has the alternative erotica genre evolved since you got your start and where do you see it going?

Since I started porn, I've experienced a huge flux of performers creating their own content which is fucking incredible. One of the first pieces of advice I received was that if I go to shoot a scene for a company, when I get home I should shoot something for myself. I'm never going to make another penny off of that scene so I need to make one that I can make residual money off of.

That is an amazing piece of advice for all performers and aspiring performers out there, and we thank you for sharing that and all of your thoughts with us in this interview. We look forward to your continued success on and off screen, and seeing even more of you in the future!

MORTICIA MORG

photos by Lance Duckworth

MorticiaMorg has got me hooked ever since her first cam show. I have been following the work of this awesome kinkster, and she never ceases to amaze me. If you do not know who MorticiaMorg is, you have been missing out, she is one of the most gorgeous, talented, and cute dark beauties on MyFreeCams, and Oh My Goth, I got the opportunity to ask her a few questions, needless to say, it was hard to decide what to ask since I got all fired up like a fangirl, but here goes:

How did you get into camming?

I'd been an alternative and adult model for a few years and camming had always interested me. I have always been comfortable with my sexuality and open-minded as well as creative and camming seemed like it would be perfect for me. What interested me about the industry was that I could combine my sexuality and creativity and have fun online with wonderful people and make a career out of it.

Can you tell us more about your experience on MyFreeCams?

I've met so many incredible people through MFC. I never knew that camming would allow me to make connections and friendships with amazing, like-minded people.

I'm so grateful for the people I have in my life because of MFC.

MyFreeCams.com
• THE #1 ADULT WEBCAM COMMUNITY •

Those makeup skills are to die for, tell us more about your passion for makeup.

I have always loved expressing my self through makeup and experimenting with obscure and unconventional styles. I have a diploma in specialist makeup and SFX and have always found happiness and fulfillment when I do a makeup look. I really love coming up with otherworldly and intricate designs and making a character come to life through makeup.

You get so creative on cam, what inspires you?

My inspiration for my cam shows stems from my artistic and quirky personality. I love being a goofball and mixing sex, creativity, and comedy to create a unique, one of a kind experience for my fans.

What does Mort do when she's not camming?

When I'm not camming I'm either bingeing horror films or nerdy tv shows, cuddling my pets, drawing or gaming. I don't lead a super exciting life haha.

What advice would you give to someone who wants to become a cam model?

My advice would be don't be afraid to let your personality shine through and do your research! Everyone has a niche and everyone is unique, use that to your advantage.

BAR SINISTER

ANNIVERSARY

Sponsored by MyFreeCams.com

text by Kitty Two photography by MPao and Camilo Herrera

AltPorn.Net readers may recognize Bar Sinister as the venue for the last two AltPorn Awards events. This alternative home of fetish and bacchanal just celebrated its 20th anniversary and our photographers were there to photograph the festivities, including the red carpet. The event was presented by MyFreeCams. The venerable nightclub gave away 500 gift bags with gifts from MyFreeCams, BlueBlood, Small Hands and Joanna Angel's Doom's Whiskey, and [drum roll please!] 500 copies of the most recent issue of AltStar magazine with Doll_Parts on the cover. More pics on AltPorn.Net!

Jade Creates

photos by Whiskey Shotz

We first wrote up Jade's Little Pink Box lingerie designs and accessories way back in AltStar magazine issue number three. I kept noticing a lot of the gorgeous alternative models that I like wearing the beautiful pieces that Jade creates, and I just had to check it out myself. I loved that, when the article came out, Jade tweeted, "It's a honor to be next to some major babes 🍑 and some good ole lube 🍋 Little Pink Box's first mention 🌟🌟🌟"

Web: littlepinkbox.fashion
MyFreeCams: Jadecreates
Twitter: jadecreates

Web: barsinister.net
Web: barsin.net

Jade is a MyFreeCams model, so, when MFC wants green bath bombs for every one of their models at a trade show, Jade is who they call on to make them in her kitchen. As you'll notice on her site, she has a wide variety of lingerie, from pretty pink garter belts and bralettes to mesmerizing elven and mermaid-like creations, she has unique and intriguing products. And if you're into lustful red or mysterious black, you'll also find something you love on her site.

If you see a model wearing really unique empowering straps and sparkles lingerie on cam or at a convention or on a go-go box at an alternative nightclub, there is a good chance Jade created it! If that nightclub is Bar Sinister, where we hold the AltPorn Awards, if you are lucky, it might be Jade herself looking beautiful dancing in an outfit like her shibari Poison Ivy cosplay in the photos you see here.

Thank you for agreeing to answer a few questions, we know you must be really busy. So, how did you get started in the industry, what made you chose this path?

Thank you for interviewing me!!

I started working within the adult industry and one of main issues I always had was my lingerie designs were not flashy or original enough. The lingerie and dancewear just wasn't quality work. I always wanted something original, interchangeable, and most importantly adjustable. So I took things in my own hands.

We just LOVE! your lingerie designs, how did this venture start, and what can we expect from Little Pink Box in the future?

I've worked with events like Exxxotica and AVN for the past year. I brought my first few lingerie designs in my suitcase to AVNs 2018. All my cam friends would come into my room and purchase something from me. I never expected people to be so excited about my designs. I realized I had a special design that everyone seemed to enjoy. I then continued sewing my butt off up until Exxxotica Chicago 2018 where I invested in my company and got my very first booth. I sold all my lingerie and was glittering boobs all weekend. I never really looked back, my designs online started to catch on the more models wore my designs. Here I am now running a successful business that now I'm now ready to expand.

What advice would you give to someone who wants to become a cam model?

The main thing I want to say in this interview is that you just need to see what works for you. You want something? You need to start now to get it. There are a million reasons for things to go wrong but if you stick with it eventually things come together.

CrazyBabe is one of my favorite sites, there's so much sexy content with alternative girls posing in all kinds of outfits and settings, you can't get bored around here, and you're just bound to find something you like. There's a lot of interesting girls on CrazyBabe, and Mayhem is still one of their hottest models.

She's a punk chick with a stunning attitude and a gorgeous build. I love her amazing tattooed body, she has legs that go for miles and perky tits, and her piercings and wild hairstyle intrigue the anarchist in me.

In this photo series of Mayhem, Bob Coulter has taken so many photos in a very nice outfit that makes her slender body look even more gorgeous. On top of the lingerie for a bit of mystery, she's wearing a cape. Mayhem's yellow nightgown is silky and very short, and her boobs look absolutely amazing in it, and her legs look like they just go on and on and on. From the interesting makeup to her gorgeous body, these images make me want to take a midnight stroll through Brooklyn, New York in America too.

Burlesque performer, pole dancer, porn star, alt model... the beautiful and fascinating Kelly Chaos wears a lot of hats, and she wears them all very well. She is also known as The Satanic Stripper, and her performances that mix eroticism and ritual are sure to have you lining up to sell your soul. She has done photo shoots for talented photographers such as Amelia G and Forrest Black from Blue Blood, and performed in incredibly hot sex scenes for alt erotica companies such as Burning Angel, as well as crossing over into more mainstream adult films and fetish work. She is truly an erotic polymath, and we are lucky enough for her to sit down and share with us for this interview so we can all get to know her a little better.

Kelly, thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to do this interview with us. You are a professional pole dancer, tell us a bit about that and how you got started doing it?

I decided to start stripping when I was 21 and living in San Diego for a brief four months. I only agreed to give it a shot because a friend of mine was a stripper and looked almost exactly like me so I figured I would be able to do this too. It was absolutely nerve wrecking. I had never set foot in a strip club before that first day that I worked. I walked in and they didn't even audition me. They assumed I just knew what I was doing. Boy were they wrong. I wore the wrong shoes. Had no idea what to do on a pole. It was a disaster. But with the help of a couple friends I made at the club, I learned the basics and took off from there. I've never had formal training or set foot in a pole studio. I'm 100% self taught and very proud of all I have accomplished.

Oh wow, that is incredibly impressive. How did you get your start in adult modeling and video work?

This is a fun story. I spoke to Joanna for months before I finally had the courage to say "FUCK IT, I want to do porn". I grew up the ugly duckling and the "freak" and suffered from intense bullying my entire adolescence. I lost my virginity after all my friends. And entering the porn industry was not only a big "fuck you" to everyone who was mean to me but also I thought it would help me be more comfortable and accepting of myself. To put it all out there and accept the love AND the hate from the viewers. And it was liberating. Though I almost had a nervous breakdown the first day I shot with Burning Angel. Now I consider some of the people I've worked with like family.

Tell us a bit about your tattoos and body modifications?

Well I have added three small pieces since these photos were captured. I have never actually counted them but it's easily at least 40. And I have gone through several facial piercings through the years. I've had everything but my eyebrow and any cartilage (in terms of facial piercings) My ears used to be 2 & 1/2" in diameter but I broke my plugs into a million pieces and thought letting them close would be a good idea and I have regretted it ever since. My ears are so small now!

We know you from your work with BlueBlood and Burning Angel, but you also do a lot of work on the mainstream side of the adult industry too. What are your thoughts on the differences between working in mainstream versus the alt side?

Honestly I'm not too sure. I do believe that one end of the spectrum allows us to be ourselves more than the other. Burning Angel and Blue Blood are the only alt porn companies I have shot for, mostly because I like to stick with what I am familiar with and the people I love. I shoot and produce my own movies now which are still in the fetish/alt genre because it's what I love the most.

Out of all the shoots you have done, what are some of your favorites?

Hands down Blue Blood. Working with them was an absolute delight. They have an incredible eye and aren't afraid to crack jokes on set to keep the mood fun and energetic. Second to that is a nude artistic shoot I did with a very talented photographer in Ventura, Trevor Magson, who has impeccable taste and produced some of the most stunning images.

Kelly, again, thank you so much for your time. One final question, how has the alternative erotica genre evolved since you got your start and where do you see it going?

Well it definitely wasn't as accepted as it is now. I feel that more people are embracing their kinks these days without shame and I love that. I believe that alternative erotica helps people explore their curiosities in the comfort of their own home. And maybe they will be inspired and try new and exciting things. It's empowering when people tell me that I have inspired them to venture into new and taboo territory with their sex lives. This industry has definitely helped me a lot and I wouldn't change that for anything in the world.

Australia's SexPo is the world's longest-running health, sexuality, and lifestyle expo. The show organizers make an effort to be inclusive and celebrate all lifestyles and sexualities. At the moment, they are working on expanding their shows to the United States, the United Kingdom, and South Africa.

Many of AltPorn.Net's writers really enjoyed seeing all the models from presenting sponsor MyFreeCams streaming live from the Sydney show floor recently. Some of our favorites broadcast from the land down under, including OpheliaVile, heidiv, and Morticia Morg who we have a feature interview with in this issue of AltStar, plus more models we'd like to get to know.
